

Media Compliance

The protection and privacy of your children is of utmost importance here at Clear Lake Christian School. In order to comply with federal law COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act), which has been put in place to protect the rights and privacy of children, we are requesting that no photographs, videos or audio files that contain a Clear Lake Christian School child's image or voice be posted on a public media site without parental consent from all parents whose child's image is in the file.
